STAMFORD

July Sees Resort Life in Full borough on the Hudson, are occupying Swing

Stamford, N. Y., July 6.-The social season at Stamford opened in earnest this week with the arrival of the July visitors, and one of the pleasantest affairs held here this season was the formal opening of the a pleasant repast last Saturday night. The house party given by Mrs. C. E. Becker at Craig Gowan, her summer home, was one of the most enjoyable affairs held here, arrived this week, and will spend the here this week. The Hinman cottage has been leased by the Misses Begley, of New York, who are occupying it Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Reeves and family, of Brooklyn, are occupying their handsome cottage here.

summer home on Kirkner Hill. The Rexmere, the most delightful of the Stamford hotels, opened last week, with one of the largest opening crowds that has ever registered there, and there is every indication that the season at the Rexmere will be the busiest in its history. The daily concerts at the Rexmere are attracting more attention than any musical programme rendered at Stamford and will be a feature of the season here. Among the late arrivals are Mrs. E. W. Allyn,

Miss Viola Allyn, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schreukusen, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cormick, Mr. and Mrs. T. McLaughlin, Miss Gladys Mc-Laughlin, New York: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Droge, Mrs. L. H. Meyer, Miss Henrietta Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodwin, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Buck, Mount Vernon: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blodgett, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Byington, Utica; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barkins, Montclair, N. J.; Dr. J. Quitez and Miss Quitez, Havana, Cuba. The Atchinson House, another popular

place here, is having a busy week, and the people who are registered there are enjoying their vacations heartily.

ELKA PARK.

Elka Park, N. Y., July 6.-Lying to the south of Tannersville, overlooking the magnificent Kaaterskill Clove, or, as it has become known in later years, the Grand Canyon, Elka Park is one of the most attractive sections of the mountains, and while, because of the restrictions, it has not grown as rapidly as the neighboring parks, its cottages are always occupied during the season

Mrs. Meta Stern and family, of New York, are occupying their summer cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Corvan and family, of New York, are occupying their cottage Steffen Dieckmann and family and John Dieckmann, of East Orange, N. J., are occupying summer cottages here. John Fegan and family, of Hoboken, N. J., are occupying one of the cottages Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fink and family, of

New York, are at their handsome summer Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hamann and family, of Mount Vernon, are at their

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hassalacher, who are tagers here, with their family, are at their usually lively here since last Saturday and beautiful cottage.

ONTEORA CLUB.

Onteora Club, N. Y., July 6.-Scattered over twenty-five hundred square miles of territory in Ulster, Delaware and Greene counties, there are nearly a hundred hamlets each making some claim to fame as a summer resort, where visitors are entertained during July and August. In some of the resorts the season opens in May, evening attracted a large attendance. ple own or lease summer residences are Miss C. M. Rowe, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Rosenthe first to receive summer boarders. baum, Mrs. Selig and son, W. A. Evans, Among the larger cottage settlements are Mrs. D. Schwab and child, Mrs. Harper those at Palenville, Haines Falls, Tanners- and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cashin, Mr. at their summer nome here.

NEW LONDON

Athletics, in Great Favor, Find

Many Devotees.

week of July has found athletics at Eastern Point in full swing. During the first part of the week the Unks of the Shennecossett Country Club were a busy place, for many of the newcomers were anxious to turn in the two eighteen-hole cards

which were required in order to receive a handicap in the bogie handicap tournament which was run off on the Fourth.

Much interest was taken in this tournament, as it was the first one of the season. The bogie for the course is 38, but scores as low as 36 have been turned in

After the morning of play on the links

the enthusiasts adjourn to the bathing merrymakers who are enjoying their morning dip, and here much sport is found until

Tennis has been very popular this week and much interest has been aroused in Automobiling continues to be a favorite pastime with the summer colony, and each day has brought many tourists within our midst. Some of the automobile parties which have been at the Griswold this week include: Stuyvesant Fish and Miss

Fish, of New York, en route for Newport; Mrs. George B Jermyn, Miss Ruth

Jermyn, George Ellis, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, of New York;

H. G. Cheney, and Robert Cheney, of South

Mount Cottage, the summer home of Mr.

and Mrs. David A. Sykes, of Rockville, has been the scene of a gay house party over the Fourth. It included Mr. and Mrs.

Frederick Adams, of Rockville, and Mr.

and Mrs. Frederick Swindells, of Rock-

Miss Corinne Sykes has been entertain-

rothy Orcutt, of Rockville, and Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kenyon, of Providence, are holding a week-end house party at which they are entertaining Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cushman, of Hart-rest, on Tyler avenue, which in-ford, have been holding a house party at cluded Kennith Vall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur

Cushman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cush-

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sykes, of Rockville, who are spending the summer at their cottage in Watch Hill, motored over here early in the week to call at Mount

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Thomas Chalmers McLean, of Washington, D. C., have opened their summer home. Spending the summer with them is Mrs. Harriet Mc-

Isaac H. Bromley, jr., of New Haven, has been spending the week with his

Mrs. Lottie Turk and Mrs. Hoffmire, of parents at their summer home.

and Mrs. A. G. Chaffee, of Providence.

ing Miss Alice Farmer, of Hartford; Miss

Marguerite Smith, of Hartford.

man, of Hartford.

luncheon time.

baseball.

Manchester.

beach, where they join the gathering of

New London, Conn., July 6.-The first

ville, Pine Hill, Fleischmanns and Stam- and Mrs. W. V. Ver Bryck, F. F. Marshall,

Mr. and Mrs. V. Everit Macy, of Scartheir beautiful summer home here.

York, are at their summer home here. and family, of New York, are occupying York City. their handsome summer cottage

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Greenleaf Wood Country Club, where the members enjoyed and family, of New York, are at Witchwood, their handsome summer cottage. Miss Maude Adams, the actress, whose summer home is one of the show places

> Mrs. Austin Flint, of New York, is occupying her summer cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Alexander and family, of New York, are at their summer Mrs. F. W. Monad, of New York, is enjoying July at her summer hom Mr. and Mrs. H. Mansfield and family, of New York, who have leased a cottage here for the season, are occupying it Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Delafield, of York, are spending the season at their summer cottage.

HAINES FALLS.

Haines Falls, N. Y., July 6.-It would be mighty difficult for a summer boarder to find a more attractive or a more delightful place for the summer vacation than this charming village at the head of the beautiful Kaaterskill Clove, and that its beauty is appreciated is evidenced by the number of people who are enjoying their summer cutings here and from the different states, and, in fact, countries, that are represented

The Laurel House is entertaining a large crowd, which enjoyed the Fourth of July celebration there heartily. Among the people who are summering there are Mr. and Mrs. A. Keller, Miss Annie Keller and Miss Maurine Keller, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Niglutsch, Mr. and Mrs. Faub, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ottenberg, Mrs. Karmel, Miss R. Karmel, Mr. and Mrs. Siegelman, F. Siegelman, Mrs. J. Thomson, I. Irwin and D. Parker, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Heide, of Jersey City, N. J. The Antiers is enjoying a very prosperous season. Among those who are registered there are Bernie Kerner and Mrs. Kellam Brosnan and son, of Brooklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beckman, O. Adolph Lamport, Isaac Frank, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacoby, R. A. Forbes, Max Lundy, Benjamin Sanger and Mrs. H. Sanger, of New York.

The Vista is entertaining more than the usual number of people at this season of the year. Among the late arrivals there are Mr. and Mrs. Bolander and son, of Richmond Hill, Long Island; Otto Ulrich and J. H. Behnken, of New York, and Mrs. T. Tichenor and Mrs. C. I. Gibson, of Jersey City, N. J.

CATSKILL.

Catskill, N. Y., July 6.-The rush to the Catskills via Catskill during the last week has been unusually large, and as a result of the people passing through here and those who are spending July either at Catskill or at some of the hamlets on the outskirts of the village it has been un-

The Fourth of July celebration on Thursday attracted a throng of visitors from other resorts and proved one of the most successful affairs of the present season. The celebration at the Grant House and the annual Greene County invitation handicap tennis tournament had a number of entries and proved an enjoyable affair. The entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. hall by Miss Glenn Raymond on Tuesday Late arrivals at the Grant House include

Recreation and Fun on North Shore of Sound

Griswold next week for the summer.

at the Griswold for the season.

have arrived for the summer.

season at the Griswold.

rived for the season.

Griswold.

Emil H. Frank, Emil H. Frank, jr.,

Miss Adele Frank, Miss Florence Frank,

Miss Grace Frank and Harold Frank are

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Morgan, Ragna

Morgan and Netlson Morgan, of Brooklyn,

is spending the month of July at the Gris-

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Myers, of New

Mrs. W. W. Spadour, Miss Mair Spadour,

Miss Thirza Spadour and Paul and Norman

Spadour, of Brooklyn, are spending the

Harold Flammer, of New York, has ar-

WATCH HILL.

York, are spending their vacation at the

The Griswold.

New York City. Late arrivals at the Kiskatom Hotel are Charles Fournier. Miss Lucille Rein, Miss A Flower and Vegetable Exhibi-Esther Cantor, J. B. Reyon, Brooklyn; Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Beckwith, of New and Mrs. O. Seelig, Mr. and Mrs. H. Michelson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mendelson, Miss Mr. and Mrs. Edward Livingston Coster Selina Mendelson and John Anderson, New

PINE HILL.

Pine Hill. N. Y., July 6.—There has been a rush to the summer hotels and boarding houses in this vicinity during the last week, sociation on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Murcott and family, a large amount in repairs of its clubhouse James R. Jesup, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl

LENOX

tion a Feature of the Week.

Lenox, Mass., July 6.-Foremost of the events of the Fourth was the annual meetings of the Lenox Club and its allied bodies, the Lake Mahkeenac Boating Club and the Lenox Golf and Tennis Club, at the clubhouse, in Walter street, Thursday morning, followed by the annual club This is one of the most imand as a result it is extremely lively here portant meetings of Lenox clubmen in the to-night and has been during othe entire year. Because of the filness of Dr Richard C. Greenleaf, president of the Lenox last week, a circus on Wednesday that attracted a number of the city visitors and meeting of the Lake Mahkeenac Boating M. Dibble, Miss H. Dibble, Mrs. J. C. Haythe Fourth of July celebration under the Club and William Douglas Sloane cresided auspices of the Young Men's Christian As- at the meeting of the Lenox Golf and Tennis Club. With a few changes the former The Fourth of July celebration was an en- officers were re-elected. All of the clubs There is a distinguished house list at the joyable event for the people who are sum- are flourishing. The Lake Mahkeenac Curtis Hotel Among the arrivals for the mering here, and the baseball game be- Boating Club, with its programme of water season are Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Smith, Mrs. tween the local team and the Weingart In- sports on Saturdays and club teas, has a W. J. Westcote, Miss Katherine W. Knapp, stitute boys was one of the most closely large following and membership. The Miss Ethel F. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Lenox Golf and Tennis Club has expended B. Herzog, Mrs. Charles A. Lamont, Mrs.

AN IMPOSING VIEW IN THE CATSKILLS.

ments, instead of at the Lenox Club.

Arthur H. Fenn has been at the Hotel room is furnished with attractive summer

rugs, the concerts being held in that room

instead of in the main foyer, is one of the things which is attracting notice and winning popularity at the hotel. Many prominent guests have arrived. Mrs. Ichabod T. Williams, Mrs. William S. Brown, Mrs.

rive next week for the remainder of the

H. C. Leutze, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic

Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Dunscomb, from all parts of the country.

held this week in the Stockbridge Casino. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. James

Miss C. Burkham, Miss M. Burkham, Mrs. | riding are very popular pastimes among the den. Miss Agnes Sayden, Mrs. Gardner F. W. Fletcher and F. B. K. Rand. Mrs. Fletcher, of New York.

summer visitors. Motorists will find the roads in this vicinity in much better shape than they were last summer, as several layers of oil have been put on over the macadam, which has laid the dust and largely made for added comfort in driving. The New York Central Railroad has made reduced rate equal to one fare for the ound trip from Albany to this place for the summer months, thus bringing many monument at Plattsburg, N. Y., were events more from that part of the state than came, which brought many people of prominence. last year Mrs. John M. Bowers, of New York, whose marriage last summer in Cooperstown was one of the social events of the season, with er mother, Mrs. Starkweather, of Coopers-

Mrs. Webb at the Cary Cottage. Miss Mary Strong Udall, of New York, s again at the Berkeley-Waiontha for the

Mrs. Bertram Sears, with her daughter, Miss Libby S. Sears, of Lawrence Park, N. Y., arrived Tuesday at the Tuller House, and will remain for several weeks.

Stuart F. Randolph, of New York, is a visitor at the Berkeley-Walontha, where he will remain for a week.

Rear Admiral John McGowan, retired, is at the Cary Cottage for the season.

LONG BEACH.

Long Beach, Long Island, July 6.-Independence Day was observed here with yacht races on the channel.

The dancing pavilion is an ideal setting for the summer girl and the crowds of young people who were there on the Fourth attested to their appreciation. At the Nassau there were fireworks and a concert by Franko's orchestra. The concert and reception tendered to Senor Carlos Madero, father of the President of Mexico, in the lobby of the Hotel Nassau, on Monday night, proved to be ne of the society events of the season. Mrs. Benjamin Nicoll, who has spent several weeks at the Nassau, returned to her nome in Morristown on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff are expected next week for July and August. Mrs. Francis N. Bangs is at the Nassau

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt are here for the season and entertained a party of friends on the Fourth.

HUNTINGTON, L. I. Huntington, Long Island, July &-Undiminished, continues the popularity of this of Brooklyn, are at their summer home on and in the construction of tennis courts, Wight and Miss Wight, Miss E. A. Osresort. More yachtsmen and more automoand in the construction of the tennis tourna- good, Mrs. Isabelle Jex. Mrs. Robert billists are making it and the Chateau des Maclay, Miss Margaret Maclay, Miss Fan-Beaux-Arts, now known as the Chateau A flower and vegetable exhibition was nie Johnson, E. S. Grew, Miss Rosalie Mrs. Oscar Iasigi was chairman of the committee of arrangements. There were Chase.

the resort. Their fine pleasure encampment, adjoining the village, is a typical country club with military features. These Richfield Springs, N. Y., July 6.—With the gayeties incident to the Fourth past this re- fancy riding on the lawns at the Chateau J. Warum, Ainsly C. Oakley, E. J. Ryan, day and some spirited games are played and many are practising for the tournaMiss Carrie A. Ross, E. S. Bergen, John E. Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. Lundrett. ments that are soon to come off. Boating Biddleston, Robert Van Wyckthorne, Mr. Mrs. Alice De Wolf, Mrs. Jessie De Wolf. on Canadarago Lake, bathing and fishing, and Mrs. C. N. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ely, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Saunwalks over the nearby hills and horseback ney, all of New York.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN

300th Anniversary of Lake's Discovery Celebrated.

Hotel Champlain, N. Y., July 6.-The 300th anniversary of the discovery of Lake Champlain and the dedicating of the memorial lighthouse at Crown Point and the unveiling of the Samuel de Champlain wealth and fashion to this part of the state during the last week, the celebration beginning informally on Saturday last and officially on the Fourth of July. Monday July 1, was Dominion Day, a popular Catown, was the guest at dinner Saturday of nadian holiday, and the Hotel Champlain was filled to the rafters with people from across the border who came to spend the week end.

Arrivals from New York City were Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Olcott, Dr. and Mrs. George Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Mulvey, Dr. and Mrs. L. Herly, Miss F Chirkes, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corning, W. E. Rice, I. E. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kane and son, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. P. S. Earle and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Van Saun. Judge Victor A. Dowling and Mrs. Dowling and their family arrived on July 2 to occupy their cottage here.

Governor and Mrs. Dix. accompanied by Colonel De Kay, military secretary, and ex-Assistant Secretary of War William Carv Sanger, will motor up from Albany to Port Henry on the Fourth, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Witherbee, Governor Dix having accepted the invitation of the tercentenary commission.

MANHATTAN BEACH. The rescue on Independence Day of & motor boat, which was later dashed to pieces on the rocks at the end of the esplanade just opposite the new open-air casino, caused great excitement at the luncheon hour at the Oriental Hotel at Manhattan Beach. Count de Pontac was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Ide on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ide will go to Bar Harbor later in the season for a short time, returning to the Oriental for the end of the season.

Mrs. John Henry Clews joined her daugher, Mrs. George Russell Peabody, and Mr. Peabody on Wednesday. A special programme of patriotic music, followed by dancing, was given by Mercadante's orchestra on Independence Day.

Among the recent arrivals are Senator Curtis Douglas, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs Troopers of Squadron C. Brooklyn's crack cavalry, add an attractive touch to the resort. Their fine placetors are touch to the resort. Alfred G. Evans, of Madison, N. J., and and Mrs. B. D. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bennett, Alexander McConnell, Dr. W. D. Hennen, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Allen, Mr. gayeties incident to the Fourth past this respectively. Some sort will now settle down to the usual forms of pleasant summer enjoyments. The tennis courts in Spring Park are in use each Recent arrivals at the Chateau Beau Riemann and Mrs. J. V. Walsh, Garmar V. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Curtess, Mrs. claim their share of attention, while long Scott B. Sheperd, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ged-ders, of Bridgeport, Conn.; J. V. Judd and

The Long Island Resorts Offer Many Joys William H. Pomeroy, Judge and Mrs. Willtam Brinckerhoff, Colonel and Mrs. Henry S. Kearney, Mrs. E. A. Louise Buch, Miss park, presented to the village by Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Charles Clement Bowen, Dr. Buch, Mrs. Henry S. Deshon, Mrs. J. Frank Logan and Mrs. I. J. Gerry will ar-

sports, a shepherds' dance, of which Mrs.

E. Y. Backus, of New York, was directress, and a reception at the Atheneum in the

SHELTER ISLAND

RICHFIELD SPRINGS.

Water Carnival and Cabaret Heaton Hall, in Stockbridge, has many Show for Independence Week. noted guests, among them Admiral and Mrs. A. M. Chester, U. S. N.; Admiral E. Shelter Island, N. Y., July 6.-Independence Day and this week end have added zest to the activity at this resort. The holiday was celebrated with a water carnival at the Sthauqua Club in the afterthe New Haven trains bound capeward are ball at the Prespect House in the evening. simply packed. This shows pretty conclu- At the Shelter Island Yacht Club there sively that Cape Cod and Buzzard's Bay were fireworks and all the craft in the are becoming more popular every year, and harbor were illuminated at night.

The first of a series of cabaret shows those who comprise the summer colony are was held in the new ballroom of the Pros-About everybody on the cape, whether pect House last night and met with popusummer resident, vacationist, business man ular favor. This evening was devoted to or permanent resident, are discussing the the regular weekly hop at this hotel and natural beauties, the cool and clear breezes the function was largely attended by guests and the great future in store for Cape Cod. and cottagers. To-morrow night Thomas Falmouth and Falmouth Heights this year, G. Austin and his orchestra will give a as last, will prove a gala place for the sacred concert in the music room of the

These were the leading features of a busy The summer at Marion and Mattapoisett programme. The resorters, however, is sure to be a lively one. Most of the regfound other diversion on the tennis courts ular summer colony have arrived. Mrs. and the golf links of the Country Club or Stanley McCormick, whose place here is in sallboats on the landlocked waters of one of the show estates in this section, has Gardiner's Bay. Others played bridge on already opened her summer home, and is the spacious piazzas of the Prospect House. expected to arrive in a few days for the All had a good time remainder of the season. Marion is also the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George of Chicago; John Yard and Miss Julia Yard, Heme Week celebration, which began on of New York, and Mrs. J. J. Roberts and Tuesday and will end to-morrow women, a doll carriage parade, automobile have tried to escape the excessive heat. parade, procession of historical floats, firefiremen's ball. WESTHAMPTON BEACH. Westhampton Beach, Long Island, July 6. -With the Westhampton Country Club as land and sea. The tennis courts and golf Leopold, Mr. J. Sass, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. links, which have been greatly improved, are in popular favor. A speedy squadron Rooney, Mr. and Mrs. S. Northshield, Mr. of new boats has been put into the water gives indications of teing able to show Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Crosett, Mr. and Mrs. hereabout by the members and already its heels to the fast craft in this vicinity. Among the most recent arrivals in the summer colony are: Dr. and Mrs. Sinclair Tousey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Cousins, William Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Maillard M. Canda, Mr. and Mrs. Royale H. Fowler, week this resort has been enjoying its Oit Mr. and Mrs. Laurens R. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Melville H. Bearns, Mrs. Augustus V. Marckwald, The festivities started in Tuesday morn- Mr and Mrs. Eugene Benton Reynolds, Dr. ing, when Miss Roberta Edeson, daughter and Mrs. Ulysses G. Wooley, Mrs. Edward of Robert Edeson, the actor, pulled the Van Wyck Rossiter, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney halyards which flung an American flag to the breeze on the main street liberty pole. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Keiser. Mrs. George Mr. "Jack" Kuhkle, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. This was followed with a ball game in the Brewster Betz, Mr. and Mrs. James Guthrie Stark and family, all of New York: Mr.

SAG HARBOR.

Russell Sage, and in the evening of the and Mrs. Dudley D. Roberts, Mrs. Thomas same day there were a musical and moving B. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowers, pictures for the children. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. William Colman Howard, there was a ball game, children's field day Mr. and Mrs. F. A. M. Burrell.

FAR ROCKAWAY. Far Rockaway, Long Island, July 6 .- Dur-

evening. Independence Day was devoted ing the last few days life has been exto an athletic meet in the afternoon and a ceedingly gay at this resort, which enjoys parade of decorated canoes and fireworks the unique distinction of being part of the in the evening. Yesterday there was a greater city. The beaches and surf have ball game between the young men and been exceedingly popular with those who For the more energetic ones there have men's tournament and in the evening the been tennis tournaments and dances to keep them busy.

Recent arrivals at the Belvedere are: Mr. and Mrs. John Farrell, Mrs. J. Wald and family, Mrs. J. Krock, Mrs. J. Lowenstein, Mr. and Mrs. B. Mailen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, Mrs. F. Heney and colony here is finding great diversion on family, Mr. Amelio Agramonte, jr., Mrs. Wilkenson, Mrs. J. J. Rooney, the Misses Rooney, Mr. and Mrs. S. Northshield, Mr. Mr. Robert Crosett, Mr. John Oldmixon, John Williams and Miss M. O'Mara.

mer colony here is as busy as bees around a hive, with the South Bay Yacht Club as the hive. With yachting on sea and baseball and tennis on land, all the re-

Recent arrivals at the Laurel House are: Mrs. S. Borchardt, Miss M. Borchardt, Miss A. Borchardt, Mr. A. Borchardt, and Edwin Borchardt, of Brooklyn; Mr. W. L. Wagand Mrs. C. R. Stilwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Poulin, Mount Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. P. Poulin, Montreal, Can., and Mr. C. Z. Van Wogenberg, Mr. Herbert Smithers, Mr. Ralph Skillman,

Watch Hill. R. I., July 6.-Many visitors arrived at the Hill in the middle of the week and are staying over the week end. The Ocean and Watch Hill houses are filled up and nearly every cottage has its party of guests, so that the resort is quite as

New York, are spending the summer at charming bevy of pretty girls and an ample supply of men. The Fourth was celebrated with a very Mrs. John Flannigan, the Misses Flanni-

the Birch Creek Road.

her parents here,

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, N. Y., July 6.-With the people who are summering at Saugerties and end here, Saugerties has been thronged

Snyder Hose Company Band last night.

been spending her summer vacation with

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Young and family, of Brooklyn, are enjoying the season

spent the Fourth of July outing and week various classes.

the unusually large number of people who awards made for the best exhibits in the

with visitors since last Saturday, and in Aspinwall to lay out a putting course un-

than at the open air concert given by the change in the hotel by which the music

Miss Mary Hassinger, of New York, has furniture and the floor carpeted with cool season.

no place was their presence more noticeable der the pines in the formal garden.

gan and Horace Flannigan, of New York, are at the Griswold for the month of July. quamicut Golf Club, and a clock golf tour-Frank Whipple, of Hartford, who is spending the summer at Black Point, was nament on the perfectly graded course at a caller at Mount Cottage on the Fourth. | the Ocean House. Both events drew many entries. A baseball game between the General J. A. Johnson and family, of Washington, are at the Griswold for the Ocean House baseball team and a pickedup team composed mainly of students from at this time of the year have there been Hampton Institute was the feature of the so many people to arrive on Cape Cod, and noon and the annual Independence Day Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Van Vleck and family, of Montclair, N. J., are expected at the afternoon. In the evening the whole summer colony found the starlight festival Mr. and Mrs. E. Nugent, of St. Louis, given by the colored students from Hamphave taken a cottage here for the season. ton a most pleasing entertainment.

Among the prominent New Yorkers who are spending July at the Ocean House are R. H. Thomas, president of the Stock Exchange; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cowden, C. H. Griffing, William C. Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Durant Cheever, D. M. Looke, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Price, Mrs. S. C. Mrs. Wistar Morris, of Overbrook, Penn., Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Slade Falmouth and Falmouth Heights this year, and family, Mrs. Simeon B. Chittenden. Miss Alice Hill Chittenden, Mrs. G. R.

Thayer and Miss Dorothy R. Thayer. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gale, of Haverhill, Mass., are visiting Colonel and Mrs. A. E. Dick at the Watch Hill House. With Mrs. Dick, who had been making them a visit at Haverhill, Mr. and Mrs. Gale motored down to the Hill, bringing Mrs. Dick's mether, Mrs. Chamberlain, who is recovering nicely from injuries received in an automobile accident last year.

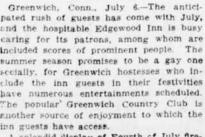

Ex-Ambassade: Lloyd Griscom, of New York, will again occupy Taurente," on the Westerly road, f r the summer.

BUZZARD'S BAY.

Buzzard's Bay, Mass., July 4.-Now that the schools are closed the influx of visitors lively as in midsummer. The dances given to the numerous resorts on Cape Cod and at the Ocean and Watch Hill houses on Buzzard's Bay shore has been something the night of the Fourth brought out a tremendous this last week. Never before

A BEACH SCENE NEAR NEW LONDON, CONN.

C. Thomas, jr., of Philadelphia, who are Already at Sandwich are Mrs E. R. Pope,

GREENWICH.

Miss Roberts, of New York

another source of enjoyment to which the inn guests have access. A splendid display of Fourth of July fireworks was provided by the hotel management, while other guests spent the day at the Country Club, where there were sev-eral luncheons, and the initial veranda tea of the season was followed by an Independence Day celebration. The Indian Harbor Yacht Club's dinner-dance, with a spectacular water carnival, claimed some of the inn colony. On Wednesday night at the Country Club occurred the smartest affair of the summer-a dinner-Gance, enjoyed by over three undred guests, including many from Edgewood Inn.

Among Country Club luncheon hostesses of the last few days were Mrs. Thomas M. Hodgens, of the inn; Mrs. B. Van Girby, of New York, and Mrs. Warren Green, of Grasshopper Farm.

"BALANCE ROCK," IN THE BERKSHIRES.

PATCHOGUE. Patchogue, Long Island, July 6.-The sumsorters are exceedingly active.

BELLPORT.

Bellport, Long Island, July 6.-Yachting is the principal diversion of the summel colony here since the opening of the Bellport Yacht Club last week. On Independence Day there was a spirited race in the one design class for the commodure's cup and to-day there was a one design freak race for the cup presented by Mrs. Frederick Eddy. Other features announced by the club are:

July 13, club regatta, all classes; July 23, one design race, cup presented by C. E. Osborn: July 27, invitation race to Moriches Long Island: August 7 to 10, race week of Great South Bay Yacht Club Racing Association, to be held at Babylon. Sayville, Patchogue and at Bellport, Long Island. August 24, club regatta, all classes; September 2, Bellport invitation race to three fastest boats of each one design class of association; September 7, annual cruise.